John, we appreciate your efforts to reach agreement on discovery issues. Unfortunately, we cannot agree to your proposal. We think the request for the acquisition documents fits squarely within our document requests and what the Court has already asked for. On the other hand, Defendants' most recent ask regarding the first dates that QE was contacted is entirely without merit based on what we have already said, including there no document request to which it relates, it seeks irrelevant information, and goes beyond what the Court already ordered.

John,

I know this is probably obvious, but we need the first date that Quinn spoke to Google about Uber. We don't want a repeat where they give us the information about Waymo instead, since that entity was not formed until this past December. We want the first communication.

David and Arturo

A discussion was held with the Special Master today at 2:00 pm. The Special Master raised the possibility of a compromise whereby the parties will make a mutual exchange of information as follows:

Uber shall provide to Waymo the acquisition agreement whereby Uber acquired Otto Motto and Otto Trucking, which acquisition agreement shall include the exhibits, appendices and any document incorporated into that agreement.

Waymo will provide Uber the date or dates on which Google and or Waymo first communicated with Quinn Emanuel about a potential violation of the law or potential legal action against Anthony Levandowski. Waymo and or Google will provide the same information as to their first communication with Quinn Emanuel about a potential violation of the law or potential legal action against Uber. This may require identification of more than one date.

Please consult with your clients and let me and the other party know as soon as you can if this exchange is agreeable. It would be ideal if this exchange of this information could occur prior to 4:00 this afternoon.
